PROBLEM NOW TO FIX VALUE OF RAILROADS

OPINIONS DIFFER WIDELY ON METHOD TO BE USED IN OBTAINING FIGURES.

Owners Propose One Method While Employees Think Another Would Get Desired Results.

By The Associated Press
Washington, March 22.—Railroad executives and employees differed widely before the interstate commerce commission today as to the methods to be employed in determining the value of the roads upon which an annual net return of 5½ percent is guaranteed for the next two years by the transportation act.

Congress has made it imperative that an immediate valuation of the roads be made. A. P. Thom, general counsel for the Association of Railway Executives, told the commission. Property investment accounts and material and supply accounts he declared to be the minimum conservative figures now susceptible to use. Data being gathered by the commission under the federal valuation act is incomplete, he said, and should not be considered in the present problem.

Estimating at $20,000,000,000 the total value of the properties, Mr. Thom declared that overstatements in the railroad accounts filed with the commission would be more than offset by the rise in values in the past two years. He said the public was accustomed to use these accounts in making their investments and any reduction in them would upset the investment values.

Speaking for the railroad employees, Donald R. Richberg, representing Glenn E. Plumm, author of the Plumm plan for railroad ownership, expressed surprise that the executives should advocate a construction of the act "not as it is written but as it would have been but for a misconception." He said the interest of the employees in the valuation of the roads lay in assuring a return sufficient to provide operating expenses which could meet the reasonable wage requirements of the workers. He denied that congress intended an immediate valuation should be made and called the property investment account evidence of "minor importance."

Representatives of the shippers and the state railroad commissioners who are considered as representing the public will be heard tomorrow. Adjustment of rates along lines of existing transportation facilities will be asked by the shippers.

BAUER CABINET SLATED FOR RESIGNATION, ONE HAS ALREADY RESIGNED

By The Associated Press
Berlin, March 22.—Gustav Noske, minister of defense, presented his resignation to President Ebert this afternoon and the president accepted it. Other cabinet changes are imminent.

It is announced that the independent voters demanded a definite labor cabinet and that the government is considering the demands.

Whole Cabinet May Quit.

By The Associated Press
Berlin, March 22.—The whole Ebert-Bauer cabinet probably will resign, according to the latest advices from Berlin. The crisis has been brought about by the great opposition aroused by the agreement with the trade unions, especially in the rural districts.

The situation in the western industrial regions and in Upper Silesia, particularly Breslau, is very serious, the advices add. The country populations, however, are calm everywhere. The peasants in Western Germany are preparing to cut off the food supplies from the troubled industrial centers.

SIX MONTHS WORK AHEAD OF CHICAGO DENTISTS IF IT IS SENT TO THEM.

By The Associated Press
Chicago, March 22.—Statistics made public today at the annual convention of the Illinois state dental society indicated that only 15 percent of the people in America used a toothbrush and that not more than 20 percent of the inhabitants took care of their teeth.

One speaker said that 75 percent of the school children of Chicago had cavities in their teeth and that if every dentist in Chicago were to devote his entire time to filling these cavities it would require six months.

WOOL PULLING WARNING WAS FROM BENSON

SIMS TELLS COMMITTEE BUT HE DID NOT TAKE IT AS FORMAL COMMAND.

Though The Chief Repeated It Next Day and Again While On Visit Later In Paris.

By The Associated Press
Washington, March 22.—Rear Admiral Sims told the senate investigating committee today that Rear Admiral Benson, chief of naval operations during the war was the officer who told him "not to let the British pull the wool over your eyes; we would as soon fight them as the Germans."

That was not a formal instruction, the admiral said, but was told to him in the presence of other naval officers after Secretary Daniels had given his final instructions just before his departure overseas where he later became commander of the American naval forces. It was repeated the following day, he declared, and again six months later when Admiral Benson visited Paris.

Admiral Sims was reluctant to reveal the name of the officer making the statement, explaining that he had kept his presentation of the case clear of personalities and that he wished to continue to do so. Chairman Hale insisted, however.

Admitted Indiscretion.

Crisis examination by Senator Pittman, democrat of Nevada, developed that Admiral Sims had shown his letter criticizing the navy department's conduct of the war to Henry P. Davison, of New York about the middle of January, while he was a guest at Mr. Davison's home. Admiral Sims conceded that that was "an indiscretion."

Senator Pittman said he had reason to believe that a copy of the same letter had found its way to a Washington newspaper correspondent who probably would be called later.

Explaining his interpretation of what Admiral Benson said to him, the witness said he had not given the statement serious consideration at the time because he had assumed that it resulted from what he described as an intensely anti-British feeling attained by Admiral Benson. He added that Admiral Benson was an "upstanding and honest man, exceedingly strong in his adherence to his convictions." It was due to Benson's personal confidence in him that he was sent abroad and later reached the highest naval post overseas, the officer stated.

Daniels Was Mistaken.

Commenting briefly on Secretary Daniels' statement before the committee, Admiral Sims said that "in his testimony on awards the secretary stated that he had reminded me of the indiscretion in a speech I made at Guild hall."

"The secretary's recollection on that point is thoroughly mistaken," the witness added. "No reference was made by anybody in the navy department to that occasion."

In reply to questions by Senator Pittman calculated to bring out that he made public his letter regarding naval decorations before Secretary Daniels received it, Admiral Sims declared that neither he nor any member of his staff gave the matter any publicity.

"I am no spring chicken," said the officer, "and am not putting my head into a noose unnecessarily. I even carried the only copy of the letter around in my pocket so I would know it did not get out prematurely."

JUDGE BOB WILLIAMS TO HEAR CONTEMPT CASES IN OKLA. COURT FRIDAY

By The Associated Press
Oklahoma City, March 22.—Judge Robert L. Williams of the federal court of the eastern district of Oklahoma was appointed today by Judge Walter H. Sanborn of the eighth district federal court of appeals to preside here Friday at the contempt of court proceedings against Texas rangers and state officials for alleged violation of an order issued by Judge Frank A. Youmans in the federal district court at Enid, Oklahoma, a short time ago, returning to the Judosmia Development Association of properties in the Red river bed.

Texas officials cited in the contempt proceedings have been ordered to appear in court here Friday. The defendants will also appear here at the same time at the order of Federal Judge William C. Hook of the St. Louis federal court of appeals, on the Bonanza Placer Mining company, to state reasons why they should not obey the injunctions of the court to release the property claimed by the Bonanza company. This property also is in the Red river bed.

Several noted lawyers, including Thomas W. Gregory who will appear for Texas parties will take part in the proceedings.

The End of a Perfect Day

GOVERNORS OF OKLA. AND ARK. CASTIGATED BY MINER PRESIDENT

By The Associated Press
Fort Smith, Ark., March 22.—Castigating the governors of Oklahoma and Arkansas for their actions in the strike period President John Wilkinson, United Mine Workers of America, District Twenty-one, in an annual session here, this afternoon termed the actions of these officials as "colossal ignorance" and patent display of political spleen. Especially did he criticize the act of Governor Robertson in declaring martial law in the Oklahoma coal fields.

Resolutions introduced included abolishment of alternating electric current at the Henryetta, Oklahoma, coal mines; disbarment of American legion members from the mine workers' organization; charging executives men are friendly to capital and are acting as strike breakers; establishment of cooperative stores at all mines in the district; striking out of the word "automatic" from the interstate agreement; voting financial assistance to newspapers started by union labor in Arkansas and Oklahoma; disallowing sub-leasing of mines; suspension of defense fund for one year and annulment of all district joint decisions and joint rules now in effect not in conflict with the interstate agreements.

Today's session was devoted to organization and reports of officers and submission of resolutions. It is expected the convention will get down to business tomorrow.

Wage disputes, compulsory arbitration and action of President Wilson's industrial commission will constitute the most important business.

John L. Lewis wired today he would be unable to attend.

Alex. Howat, president of the Kansas miners' district, is expected Wednesday.

MORGENTHAU MAY BE NEW AMBASSADOR TO MEXICO.

By The Associated Press
Washington, March 22.—The selection of Henry Morgenthau, former ambassador to Turkey, to be ambassador to Mexico, is expected to be announced soon from the White House. No official announcement was available today but it is known that Mr. Morgenthau's name is foremost among those under consideration.

CITY EMPLOYEES GO ON STRIKE IN CHICAGO

By The Associated Press
Chicago, March 22.—The first walkout in what threatened to be a general strike of city employees occurred today when 500 teamsters, cleaners and chauffeurs quit work, tying up the collection of garbage and interfering with street cleaning.

The strike demands an increase in pay of $2 a day. The chauffeurs receive $6 a day and the teamsters $9. The officers of the clerks' and stenographers' union notified the city council that a strike would be called Wednesday unless demands for a wage increase of $25 a month were granted and delegates from other groups of city employees asked for wage advances.

RAILWAY WAGE BOARD IS FORMED AND READY TO TACKLE QUESTION

By The Associated Press
Washington, March 22.—Formation of the joint railroad wage board was completed tonight by the conference committees representing the railroad corporations and the sixteen railroad unions, which elected E. P. Winter of the Pennsylvania railroad chairman. The bi-partisan body now is ready to begin consideration of the wage demands of the two million workers made last August and which have been twice before the president without a settlement being reached.

The board today began the task of re-examination of the voluminous records and data gathered by the wage adjustment boards of the railroad administration with respect to the workers' claims. Contrary to the union forecast, the corporation representatives agreed to include these as a part of the board's wage records and to employ them as far as practicable as a basis upon which to discuss the long drawn out controversy.

According to present indications the board will not deal with the question as a whole until countless minor points of difference have been eliminated. Members were said to have proposed that the wage demands be taken up by classes, adjustments reached and individual controversies settled and then the basis of a general percentage of increases discussed.

The suggestion of the president that the board should give close study to the relationship between present railroad wages and the cost of living and also to the pay of labor in other lines of industry probably will not enter into the conference until toward the end. The disposition seemed to be to talk of "specifics" rather than generalities, at the outset and on this point union leaders said they had won. They believed that when they had succeeded in avoiding "meandering discussions" they had broken away from the bunker which they said they always had met in wage meetings prior to federal control.

BAKER TELLS OFFICERS BE NICE TO CIVILIANS

By The Associated Press
Washington, March 22.—Efforts to effect "closer communion" between the army and the public were ordered by Secretary of War Baker in a letter today to the chief of staff, General March. He advised that all officers be instructed to establish cordial and personal relations with civilian officials, business men and heads of civic organizations in order that they might be made agencies for "an active, working force for the upbuilding" of the new army.

BEAUMONT'S GROWTH DUE TO ANNEXING TERRITORY

By The Associated Press
Washington, March 22.—The population of Madison, Wisconsin, Glens Falls and Amsterdam, New York; Richmond, Indiana, and corrected figures for Beaumont, Texas, "meandering discussions" they had broken away from the bunker which they said they always had met in wage meetings prior to federal control.

LENINE LAYS PLANS TO BECOME THE HEAD OF COMMUNIST STATE

By The Associated Press
Warsaw, March 20.—An expert report submitted to the British and American authorities says that Nikolai Lenin, the bolshevik premier, has personal aspirations soon to become the head of a continental communist state and that owing to these hopes is seriously endeavoring to bring order throughout Russia, establish peace with Poland and eventually create credits abroad for Russia.

The expression "continental communist state" as used in this dispatch, does not indicate clearly whether a continent-wide state in Europe or one less in scope is meant.

The report describes Russia as being without wheat or flax to export saving the peasants have disposed of all the stocks they had hidden from the bolsheviks. The mills are not operating and the peasants are spinning only enough for their clothing, raising just enough flax for their own uses.

The report says that even if stocks for export existed shipment of them would be impossible because of the lack of transportation.

KANSAS HAS HER THIRD SAND AND DUST STORM.

By The Associated Press
Topeka, Kansas, March 22.—A severe wind storm, the third within eight days, blew across Kansas today. It stirred up great quantities of sand and dust and caused minor property damage at a number of points. Wire communication was impaired at many places.

ROYAL AND ANCIENT GOLFERS GET TOGETHER

By The Associated Press
New York, March 22.—The United States will be officially represented in Great Britain at the meeting of the Royal and Ancient Committee on Golf, the delegation sailing May 22 for London, according to a message tonight from George H. Walker of St. Louis, president of the United States Golf Association, to headquarters here.

TEXAS' HARD LUCK, BOLL WORM OR LEGISLATURE

By The Associated Press
Austin, March 22.—Decision as to action to be taken in response to what practically is a threat that unless Texas provides more drastic regulations of pink boll worm infested areas a federal quarantine against Texas cotton will be declared, said Governor W. P. Hobby late today.

BORAH THINKS TOO MUCH COIN USED FOR WOOD

CALLS ON GENERAL'S MANAGERS FOR STATEMENT OF NAMES AND AMOUNTS

Chairman Procter Replies That Every Dollar Is Within The Laws Of State And Nation.

By The Associated Press
Washington, March 22.—Acting on published reports that large sums had been contributed to Major General Leonard Wood's campaign fund, Senator Borah, republican of Idaho, called on the general and his campaign managers today for the names of subscribers, amounts and "the manner in which it is being used."

General Wood's manager not only owe it to their candidate but "still more to the party and the country to clear those charges in an unmistakable way," Senator Borah declared in a statement.

"The use of money in elections has reached the point where the people will have to take hold of it," he said. "It is nothing less than a national peril that two months before the convention the use of money in the attempt to control the convention has already reached the point of a scandal."

That vast sums of money are being spent is perfectly apparent, I have seen letters from South Dakota, Virginia and Illinois, showing that people generally are becoming very restless in the face of the apparent use of money for corrupt purposes."

SAYS SENATORIAL GROUP ARE FIGHTING HIS MAN

By The Associated Press
Chicago, March 22.—That no money had been expended within strictest limits of state and national law, to advance the candidacy of Major General Leonard Wood for president, was the statement made tonight by William C. Procter, chairman of the Wood national committee in answer to Borah's query in the senate today about General Wood's campaign funds. Chairman Procter's statement follows.

"General Wood is the candidate of the people and not of the politicians. His candidacy has been fought by political combinations and senatorial groups from the beginning. His campaign is being conducted by men who are not politicians. Convinced as they are that Leonard Wood is the man needed to head the government of the United States during the four fateful years ahead of us and believing that such is the sentiment of the country, his campaign has been conducted solely on the lines of presenting the man, his character and his record to the people. No money has been expended excepting within the strictest limits of the state and national laws and solely for the purposes above stated."

DISORDERLY SOLDIERS CAUSED RIOT IN DUBLIN

By The Associated Press
Dublin, March 22.—There was a riot here tonight in which two men were shot dead and four seriously wounded. The riot was precipitated by the disorderly conduct of soldiers, about three hundred of whom paraded the streets singing, shouting, perversely, hammering doors and smashing windows.

After parading through Harcourt street the soldiers returned toward the barracks followed by a large crowd of civilians. At the Port Bello bridge, near the barracks, a clash seemed inevitable and a volley was fired over the heads of the crowd but by whose orders is unknown.

The soldiers who started the disorder eventually returned to their barracks. Other soldiers not concerned in the rioting were roughly handled by the populace while returning to the barracks.

Report From London.

London, March 22.—Reports received from Dublin on the riot there differed from the first statements received. One report says the soldiers were leaving a theatre singing, "God save the king" when they were attacked by a crowd. A soldier fired his revolver in self-defense whereupon shooting became general and a man and a woman were killed.

Another version is that the fatalities were due to volleys fired by a part of troops ordered out from the Fort Belvoir barracks to protect unarmed soldiers.

There is nothing in late reports concerning soldiers followed by rioters or breaking windows. The latest advices say that there is considerable excitement in Dublin.

SENATE CONFIRMS CRANE TO GO TO CHINA

By The Associated Press
Washington, March 22.—The senate today confirmed the nomination of Charles R. Crane of Chicago to be minister to China, and of William R. Fox of Berkeley, California, to be a member of the farm loan board.

SENATE WAITS ON PRESIDENT IN TREATY ROW

AFRAID TO TRY PEACE DECLARATION TILL THEY KNOW WHAT HE WILL DO.

In The Meantime The French Defensive Treaty Seems To Have Been Forgotten.

By The Associated Press
Washington, March 22.—In the absence of any authoritative prediction of what President Wilson would do with the unratified treaty with Germany, the impression gained weight in the diplomatic circles today that the first step probably would be a notification to the other powers that ratification had been refused by the senate.

Diplomats holding that view pointed out that such a notification could be given to clarify the status of relations between the United States and the other powers, regardless of what decision the president might make later on the question of the treaty's resubmission to the senate or negotiation of a separate peace.

In some quarters it was predicted Mr. Wilson might, however, combine a notification of the treaty's failure with an announcement of his failure purpose in the matter in order that the nations that have ratified may be advised of what course they can expect developments here to take.

Senate leaders are understood to have been influenced in part by such a possibility in their decision to delay action on a declaration of peace, preferring to know what the president will do before they take any further steps. Today there was some discussion of the peace declaration proposal in informal conferences among senators but it was predicted that it would not come up on the floor for two weeks or more.

In some diplomatic quarters it was thought probable that a separate peace might be established with Germany, a modus vivendi negotiated with the allies and the question of the covenant of the league of nations alone left to the "solemn referendum" of the nation.

The fate of the French defensive treaty appears to diplomatic officials to have been completely forgotten.

HALF MILLION DOLLAR OIL FIRE IN TULSA, OKLA.

By The Associated Press
Tulsa, Okla., March 22.—Fire starting in a leaking tar line swept over the plant of the Constantin Refining company here today, damaging the plant to the extent of $500,000. Fanned by the highest winds of spring, the flames leaped from still to still and tank to tank almost unimpeded until practically the entire refinery was in flames.

The first explosion occurred at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon and it was not until early tonight that the fire was under control. All the stills in the plant were badly damaged and most of the 8,000 barrels of crude oil they contained destroyed. Eight 3,000-barrel tanks of refined oil were entirely burned. The loss is said by company officials to be fully covered by insurance.

BRAINBRIDGE COLBY IS CONFIRMED BY SENATE SECRETARY OF STATE

By The Associated Press
Washington, March 22.—President Wilson's nomination of Bainbridge Colby to be secretary of state to succeed Robert Lansing, resigned, was confirmed by the senate late today.

It was understood that no objection was raised to confirmation of the nomination which has been the subject of extended secret hearings by the foreign relations committee. There was no record vote on confirmation.

Senator Lodge, republican leader and chairman of the foreign relations committee, presented Mr. Colby's name with the favorable recommendation of the committee and Senator Jones, republican, Washington, immediately asked for the vote.

Several republican senators who have been regarded as critics or opponents of Mr. Colby were not present at the session.

Testimony before the foreign relations committee was not made public. Senator Lodge said publication rested with the committee which has maintained uniform and decided reticence regarding statements of all witnesses, including the final statement last week of Mr. Colby.

Word reached the state department late today that Mr. Colby had left New York for Washington and would take the oath of office tomorrow.

WOMEN MAY VOTE IN TEXAS WITHOUT TAX

By The Associated Press.
Houston, March 22.—Two district courts in Texas have held soldiers could vote without payment of poll tax required of all voters in Texas, because of the fact that these soldiers were outside the state at the time for meeting the poll tax requirement. The women's suffrage attorneys are investigating to see if the adoption of the suffrage amendment will not enfranchise all women voters, regardless of poll tax payment, in view of the fact that time for tax payment expired before the adoption of the amendment. This would make Texas ruled two to one by women votes, as less than one-third of the males eligible have paid the poll tax. Women had the right to pay poll tax for registration to vote in primaries and minor elections, but not for a general election, when the time for payment in 1920 expired.

LEGION COMMITTEE HAS DECIDED TO ASK $1.50 FOR EACH DAY SERVICE

By The Associated Press.
Washington, March 22.—The executive committee of the American Legion tonight put up to congress the proposal to pay adjusted compensation to former service men and women at the rate of $1.50 for every day of service.
This action reversed a previous vote taken by the committee, which accorded 37 state representatives in favor of the legislative committee's plan for cash relief of $1 a day, which was adopted as a substitute for the original proposal of $50 a month. The committee's determination to boost relief followed a general review of a composite bill which the legion will present to the house ways and means committee Wednesday, including privileged land settlement, home building and extension of vocational training.
All provisions of the bill, except the award of cash based on the period of service, were adopted unanimously. Strong opposition developed tonight, however, to the $50 a month proposal.

THE BUILDERS PLAN BIG CAMPAIGN FOR SUNDAY

Say, all of you boys that missed the Builders program Sunday morning, missed your chance to ever get married. Boys, be sure and see what the Builders are doing. We had a wonderful program last Sunday and are going to have a better one Sunday. Builders had a business meeting last night and organized a baseball team which will practice this evening. After the meeting adjourned the bunch stormed the Grand Theatre about fifty strong, where they had peanuts and popcorn and enjoyed a splendid show; they then retired to a confectionery where they were served with drinks and were treated with cigars.

We Builders have challenged the Men's Bible class for a contest of one week which will close Sunday with Builders leading about fifty or better. Watch the paper for further tips; we are going to have some big doings this week.

All young men between the ages of sixteen and twenty-five cordially invited. Our slogan is "See you at Sunday School." You tell 'em we will be there, two hundred strong.

STRIKE LOOKS CERTAIN IN ANTHRACITE FIELDS UNLESS OWNERS CHANGE

By The Associated Press.
New York, March 22.—Negotiations for a new wage agreement for anthracite coal miners were virtually at a standstill today, pending decision here tomorrow by the workers' general scale committee as to whether there is to be suspension of work April 1, when the present agreement expires.

Sentiment of the miners as interpreted by union leaders tonight is unanimously in favor of a walk-out unless the mine operators agree to make any wage retroactive from April 1. The operators are reported opposed to such an agreement.
"Tomorrow will decide whether there will be peace or war in the anthracite industry," one union representative declared. "We hope to take definite action that will settle this part of the controversy."

BEARDS THRIVING IN WICHITA FALLS: BARBERS ON STRIKE

Wichita Falls, Texas, March 16.—Two unions, the plumbers and the barbers are on strike in full force in Wichita Falls and a third, the carpenters, are voting now on a strike. Raises in the scale for the plumbers to $15 a day and for the barbers 65 per cent of the proceeds, are the cause of the strike.

The Chamber of Commerce in executive session this morning went on record as unanimously favoring the master plumbers' plan opposing $15 a day and any contract that reduces the contractor the right to hire and fire workmen on any scale. Following the hearing given the master plumbers, the Chamber of Commerce heard a delegation from the Wichita Falls Rotary Club, which last week started a movement to declare Wichita Falls an open shop town. Action on the open shop movement was deferred until the next meeting of the organization.

The Automatic Keeps On Washing

While the busy housewife prepares the dinner or performs other necessary household tasks, the Automatic Electric Washer hums right along, washing every article of apparel spotlessly clean.

Once the clothes are put in the suds and the washer lid's clamped down, the Automatic needs no further attention.

In seven minutes the Automatic washes a tubful—without rubbing and without injury.

The Automatic is the most simple, dependable and economically priced washer made. Has the fewest possible number of operating parts; nothing to break; nothing to get out of order.

Your dealer will gladly demonstrate it.

LOCAL NEWS

W. A. Harty, who was foreman of the Texas Midland roundhouse when it was closed after the government took over control of the road, and who has been stationed at Terrell, is back again setting up the machinery, installing waterworks and looking after other arrangements for opening the roundhouse again.

Harry Baldwin, son of N. M. Baldwin of Paris, who is in the regular army stationed in China, writes his father that he met a cousin there, who was formerly with Wils Point and is now the wife of a missionary.

J. E. Crawford, a carpenter employed by C. G. Caviness, met with a painful accident last Saturday afternoon. While the sharp blade of a chisel was sticking out of a side-pocket of his overalls his hand came in contact with it and the ball of the palm was pierced about an inch. He suffered a great deal of pain and will be laid off from work a week or two.

Next Thursday is the last day of service for the approaching term of Judge Denton's court.

A small house at Atlas belonging to George Hill, colored, that was occupied by his daughter, was destroyed by fire Sunday night.

W. H. Atkinson, who came in from his Kiamitia farm yesterday stated that corn planting was about finished on the river.

E. P. Easterwood has purchased from J. O. Richardson and wife the two-story Richardson home at the corner of 18th and Cherry streets, the purchase price being $4,100.

J. J. Nixon, fifty-eight years old, died at an early hour Sunday morning at his home at Powderly after an illness of several months. The funeral was held at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Mt. Taber cemetery, conducted by Rev. N. C. Walters. He was born in Lamar county and was a stepson of the late Tebe Mullins, an old settler. He is survived by his wife and two sons and two daughters. The children are all married.

Officers Avance and Rice had a call to the Texas and Pacific railroad yards Sunday to arrest a crazy negro, who was a stranger. Nobody knew whence he came. He was found in the sandhouse. When he was placed in jail with the other prisoner she thought he was in a church meeting.

The officers made eleven arrests Sunday afternoon on the charge of speeding and nearly all of them entered a plea of guilty yesterday.

There will be all day singing with dinner on the ground at El Bel, five miles west of Paris next Sunday. Everybody is invite to come with lunch.

There will be a basket supper at the Golry schoolhouse next Friday night. All of the neighboring schools and communities are invited. The inventory in the estate of Walter Bywaters, deceased, of Roxton was filed yesterday in the probate court by J. H. Creed and Phil Hawkins, the appraisers, and was approved. It shows the estate to be worth nearly $500,000. It is one of the largest inventories ever filed in Lamar county.

Z. B. Moon of Bogata, member of the legislature from Red River county, who was a business visitor to Paris yesterday, stated that he believed the legislature would be called to meet within the next twenty days in special session for the purpose of taking action on the pink bollworm situation, the minimum wages law, and in regard to the public schools.

J. W. Ware of Denver, Colo., who is in the mining business, is here on a visit to nephews and nieces in Paris and Roxton whom he had never seen before. Mr. J. M. Lattimore of Roxton left for Texas and he left for Colorado soon after Mr. Lattimore married his only sister. He is spending this week at Roxton, but will return to Paris Friday and will spend several days before he leaves for home.

Lucius Brown, colored, pleaded guilty in the recorder's court yesterday morning to reckless driving and traffic violation. He ran into J. T. Lassier's automobile at the corner of 15th and Bonham streets last Saturday evening and damaged it, besides paying a fine he paid Mr. Lassier for the damage to his machine.

Elder J. W. Denton of Roxton, who returned yesterday from Malta, where he preached Sunday, stated that he was informed that dogs were dying all over that country from sore eyes. He said that the eyes become swollen and caused the victim to become as blind as a bat.

The attendance at the meeting of the Confederate camp was not as large last Sunday afternoon as usual. J. M. Lattimore of Roxton and Carroll Smith of Detroit were visitors. Resolutions were presented on the death of Master Seckel and on the death of Mrs. Neva Jones, the widow of a Confederate veteran, after which a program was presented including an address by Dr. Ben M. Edwards and an interesting reading and recitation by Mrs. R. L. Lattimore.

Constable J. H. Marcum of Blossa arrested twelve alleged craps shooters Sunday in a thicket a mile west of that place. He crawled about three hundred yards on his hands and knees to get up to the mouth-out being seen. There were six whites and six negroes. When they realized his presence they scattered in the woods and three got away but he secured their names.

The doctors report that work is a great deal lighter in their business at present.

A small garage at the home of Luther Higgs on South 26th street caught on fire from an unknown cause at 8 o'clock yesterday evening and was consumed. When the fire was discovered it was burning all over. Two bales of cotton that had been stored by a farmer in the garage were scorched and fifteen bales of hay were damaged. The residence had a narrow escape. Wind was blowing the flames toward it, but the firemen prevented them from setting it on fire.

AN AGED RESIDENT
DIES AT BIARDSTOWN

R. Morgan, an old resident of Lamar county died at 5:30 o'clock Sunday morning at his home at Biardstown after a long illness. He was a sufferer from asthma for a long time and had been rapidly growing weaker and more feeble with advancing years. He was born in Kentucky seventy-nine years ago and continued to reside in his native state until after growing to manhood. He was a soldier in the Confederate army, serving in the cavalry for two years.

He came to Lamar county in 1880 and located in the Byrdtown community, a few miles south of Blossa, where he engaged in farming many years. He is survived by his wife and the following children: J. T. Morgan of Paris, Maurice Morgan and C. W. Morgan of Dallas, G. E. Morgan of Corpus Christi and J. W. Morgan of Electra. He also leaves a large number of grandchildren. Ever since he had lived in the county he was engaged in farming and enjoyed the comforts of a quiet home life. He was a consistent member of the Baptist church many years and was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge at Biardstown.

The funeral service was held at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Artich church, and was conducted by Rev. Andrew Walker.

RUNAWAY YOUTH IS DETAINED IN PARIS

About 8 o'clock Sunday night a telephone call was turned in at the police station from Constable Paul Dorsey of Edroit requesting the officers to be on the lookout for a youth sixteen years old, the son of a farmer living on the river. The father had notified Constable Dorsey that he had run away from home. The call from Edroit was received by Officer Jack Carter, and two hours later his attention was attracted by a boy walking along the street carrying some clothes in a sack. He proved to be the boy wanted.

He said that a man had engaged him to go to Burk Burnett to work in the oil field, and was to meet him in Paris, but didn't show up. He was carried to a hotel and given a bed and yesterday morning some of his relatives, who had been notified, came over and carried him back home.

CHAMPION EATER PUTS AWAY BIG LOTS OF FOOD

Boston, March 13.—Eugene Shelton claims the championship of the world as an eater.

He says he can put away sixty-eight eggs and five quarts of milk in on sitting, with a few slices of bread in the bargain. On one occasion he managed to consume four quarts of oysters.

His penchant for the eating line is meat and plenty of potatoes. For breakfast, it is his usual custom to eat four pork chops, six potatoes, three pieces of toast, four cups of coffee, one-half pie and two bananas. He varies his menu some, but the quantity is always about the same.

For lunch he has two and one-half pounds of meat, one and one-half pounds of potatoes, four rolls, three cups of coffee, one pie and two bananas. His evening meal comprises four pork chops, two pounds of potatoes, five slices of toast, three cups of tea and one pie.

During the day he smokes four or five packages of cigarettes, sometimes sitting up during the night to have a smoke. Incidentally he sleeps only about four hours in twenty-four.

LUXURY FORSAKENBY YOUTH IN ORDER TO WIN WAGER

Denver, March 17.—Harold Van Buren, 21, the "betting maniac," is seeking a job in Denver that will enable him to leave his reputed $28,000,000 bank roll untouched until he wins his latest wager of $10,000.

Young Van Buren, who calls New York City his home, but says he owns establishments in Washington, D. C.; Hartford, Conn., and a large hunting lodge at Long Lake N. Y., reached this city garbed in rough working clothes and an available "stake" of exactly six cents.

Some months ago in Los Angeles Van Buren made a bet of $10,000 that he could make his way in the world for a specified period without the aid of any portion of his fortune. One condition of the wager is that he can not hold any job longer than ten days. The time limit on the bet expires within a few weeks and Van Buren says he's developed an appetite that will warrant his purchase of the best stocked restaurant in whatever locality he finds himself when he wins the bet.

According to his own admissions, Van Buren, who claims to have inherited his wealth from parents who died several years ago, is a veritable "betting hound."

Among the stunts he claims to have performed with the winning of a bet as the incentive is the staging of a 10-course dinner to a score of friends on a cork table out in the surf at Palm Beach. The bill for silverware that found its way to the bottom of the briny deep was huge, the youthful itinerant millionaire says.

At a local hotel where Van Buren was given "credit" for a room until he could obtain a job he related to a representative of the International News Service many of the "nutty" stunts and details of "original parties" that he has staged in the East. He discussed the possibilities of marriage for himself, but declared that he was for the present following out the Van Buren family motto—"Do what you say, and get what you want."

"I intend to marry some time," declared Harold, "because I am the last of the Van Burens and desire to see the family continued. I entertain none of the fickle notions in regard to matrimony that seem to be so prevalent nowadays, and I know the sort of girl I want. When I find her we will be wed. She must be pretty."

THIS LITTLE WOMAN GAINED NINE POUNDS

Says She Is More Grateful To Tanlac That Words Can Express For It Brought Her Health And Happiness.

"I am more grateful to Tanlac than words can express for it has given me health and happiness after twelve long years of suffering," was the statement made the other day by Mrs. Olive Peltier, No. 26 East Allen Street, Winoski, Vt.

"I had been troubled so long with nervousness and sleeplessness that my housework was a drudgery and I got little pleasure out of life. My appetite left me entirely and at times I could hardly bear the sight of food and what little I did eat caused me severe suffering afterward. Gas would form on my stomach so badly that it affected my heart and I thought I had heart trouble.

"I was so nervous I would jump at the least unexpected noise and would drop everything I had in my hands. I got so weak and faint at times that I would have to catch hold of something to keep from falling over. My sleep was broken and restless and I was losing weight rapidly. I had little strength or energy and, as I had tried all kinds of medicines without relief, I had become very much discouraged over my condition.

"My husband had been taking Tanlac and when I saw what wonderful results he was getting I decided to try it myself and now I think as much of Tanlac as he does because it has of course and she must be a brunette."

Van Buren said as a result of his experiences in making his way, he had decided to establish a fund in New York City for young men who are "broke."

"I know what it is to be down and out," said Van Buren. "Any young man under 25 who applies to the fund will be loaned a sufficient sum for his present needs, on condition that the money be repaid after he has secured a job."

NATIONAL LABOR PARTY NOT BEING CONSIDERED

By The Associated Press
Emporia, Kansas, March 22.—Labor leaders attending the state conference of Kansas Federation of Labor representatives here tonight said that labor will organize politically only in local industrial centers. A state or national labor party is not being considered at this time, according to a statement by Frank B. Brown, of Topeka, a member of the press committee. Alexander Howat, president of District No. 14, United Mine Workers, did not arrive and the conference will probably be extended over until tomorrow that he may be heard.

MISS MARJORY NEAL CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Miss Marjory Neal of El Paso, just nine hours older than Jane Spinkler, the Paris fire baby who celebrated her birthday Saturday afternoon, also celebrated here on the same afternoon, and she came all the way from El Paso last week to do the celebrating at the home of her maternal grandmother, Mrs. F. W. Ramsey, of 157 West Kaufman street.

Marjory was hostess to fifteen little friends among the tiny tots whose mothers were girlhood friends of her own mother and many of whom are distinguished by having their birth year co-incidental with the fire that even though the birthday does not happen to be the same.

The weather man had conspired with little Marjory's family to make the afternoon a perfect one, and the little guests were as close to heaven as they will be for many years to come when they were turned loose on the lawn to look for candy kisses which grew in the most unexpected places about the bushes and flowers.

Besides finding candy on the bushes as little Billy Russell put it, they were each given a horn with especially efficient characteristics along the lines of manufacturing noise, and they were also served to the indispensable ice cream cone, and each guest also carried away a little gift as a souvenir of the birthday fete.

When the home coming time rolled around Marjory packed kids and horns, gifts and smiles into one big car and joy rode about the city depositing each little guest at his own door. The party was given by Mrs. Campbell assisted by Mrs. Lilah Kunkendall, auntie of the four year old hostess.

Miss Marjory was born just the day before the great fire. At that time her parents were living on Clarksville street and she with her mother were moved several times during the fire, not because the buildings they were on were on fire but because of a fear that the fire would reach them. As the home did not burn they were moved back the next day. A year ago the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neal moved to El Paso where Mr. Neal has a garage and automobile accessory store.

IS NEWS SHORT TODAY?
THEN BLAME THE AURORA
CUTTING UP LAST NIGHT

By The Associated Press
New York, March 22.—Aurora Bo, realist was attacked tonight with spring fever. He put telegraph wires out of commission from the Atlantic seaboard to the far west.

There were interruptions in the telegraph service early in the evening, but the complete tie-up came at 9:45. By 10 o'clock the Western Union reported it was beginning to recover some of its circuits but a realignment or balancing was necessary. The American Telephone and Telegraph company, which also reported its telegraph service was completely demoralized, said the northern lights had not interrupted its local or long distance telephone service. Cable terminals were hard hit while wireless apparatus waged an unequal fight against nature for command of the air.

MUSTEROLE—QUICK RELIEF! NO BLISTER!

It Soothes and Relieves Like a Mustard Plaster Without the Burn or Sting

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. It does all the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster—does it better and does not blister. You do not have to bother with a cloth. You simply rub it on—and usually the pain is gone!

Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia), 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

Sullivan, Ind., March 17.—Leo Pinkston, 15, broke both legs while attempting to turn over in bed. The lad, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pinkston has been confined to his bed for more than three months with a malady affecting the bones of his legs. Physicians said his bones were brittle as chalk because of a lack of phosphorus. So when Leo tried to one position and attempted to change the legs snapped. The broken bones were set and the doctors are awaiting with interest to see if they will knit.

WHITE SOX VISIT TO PARIS BIGGEST OF BASE BALL EVENTS

The coming visit of the Chicago White Sox will be the biggest thing in a base ball way that ever happened in Paris. The securing of this great ball club was sanctioned by the Commercial club which body realizes fully the great advertising that will result from the visit of a club of the caliber of the Sox. This great aggregation has always been in the public eye, and more has been written and printed about them than any one base ball club in the country, barring possibly the New York Giants. The Sox and Giants have vied with each other not only for publicity, but also for the big base ball honors. The Sox, though, have the edge on the Giants, inasmuch as they trimmed that crew for a world's championship not only once but twice.

It was a great stroke of good fortune to be able to secure this stellar aggregation to visit Paris, and it was only through the frenzied appeals of Earl Snapp and the influence of Dicky Kerr that this attraction was secured. Dick was naturally anxious to show before home folks in the togs of a near world's championship club, and it might be stated that Kerr did his part to secure the decision in the big event with Cincinnati. Had the other pitchers come through as did Richard the Wee Sox, for the fourth time in their history, would have worn the title of World's Champions. This coming event is going to be a Kerr day strictly, and the honors of the day will be conferred on him. There will be admirers of Kerr from all over this section here on March 26 to see the little fellow in action, and there is a prospect of big doings other than base ball in his honor.

The Chicago papers send half a dozen more scribes south every spring to chronicle the doings of their favorites, and some of these scribes will accompany the club to Paris. One scribe, Geo. S. Robbins, who has traveled with the Pale horse for twelve years, not only on the training trips, but also during the regular playing season, will be missing this year, having quit the newspaper game. Robbins was a big booster for Kerr when the little fellow first joined the club, and it was his insistent boosting that finally made Gleason give the Paris product a trial. Robbins stayed in the game long enough to see his prophecies of Kerr's worth fulfilled.

Tickets for the big game on March 26 are now on sale at C. P. Johnson's News and Cigar Stand, also at the Bank Cigar Stand. The general admission will be $1.00 to any part of the grounds. This includes the grand stand. Box seats will be 50 cents extra, which can be secured from Earl Snapp at Carter Anderson Co. There are only about fifty of these box seats left, hence the prospective buyer of one had better get a wiggle on. Snapp announced last night that he would give a season's ticket, good for admission to all the games played at the local park this season, to the party who came nearest guessing the actual attendance at the big game here on March 26. All guesses will be filed with Mr. Snapp at Carter Anderson Co. Some lucky person will get a free season's ticket by a good guess. It costs nothing to make a guess, and you may gain a pasteboard that will be a money saver this summer when the season gets under way.

Meanwhile don't forget to boost and pull for Richard Kerr and pretty weather. This will be a memorable event, one that will not be forgotten.

TELEPHONE MANAGERS HAVE MEETING IN PARIS

The meeting of the managers of the Southwestern Telephone company in the Paris district was held yesterday at the exchange on Bonham street. The meeting was for the purpose of reviewing and outlining the schedule of work for this year and to see what could be done in the way of improving the connections. The office managers who were present were: A. R. Strickland, Pittsburg; R. E. Spencer, Mt. Pleasant; A. K. Yates, Royse City; F. G. McKinney, Rockwall; L. M. Dorsey, Ladonia; F. H. Oglesby, Honey Grove; Wm. Bellew, Blossom; R. W. White, Wolfe City.

Besides the office managers there were present W. C. Maas of Dallas, division commercial superintendent; H. F. Whiteside, Paris, district plant chief; A. S. Johnson, Paris, district traffic chief. The meeting was in session all day and was purely a business session.

SUFFERED WITH RHEUMATISM, CATARRH AND STOMACH TROUBLE

"I think Number 40 For The Blood as a blood purifier has no equal. When I began to take Number 40, I was in very poor health, as I had Rheumatism, Catarrh, Stomach Trouble, Lead Poisoning, and an Itch that I had tried almost every known remedy to relieve. I have taken six bottles of 'Number 40' and am on a fast road to recovery. I owe my life to it, as I used to weigh 127 pounds and now weigh 148, my usual weight. I could write more but this should be enough to convince the most skeptical, and you are at liberty to use this letter anyway you desire." Geo. Klunker, Lima, Ohio.

SUNDAY WAS ANNIVERSARY OF FIRST GERMAN DRIVE

Two years ago today the first great German drive was made all along the French front. The first American officer to fall in action was Lt. Jefferson Feigle, whose father, Cal. Fred Feigle, was originally a Paris man and whose mother, formerly Miss Lyde Mauldin, was from Honey Grove. The mother of the fallen officer is a dramatic critic and play wright in New York City and his father was for a number of years on the Governor's staff in Texas. He is now the editor of the Political Review in New York City.

The son of the family enlisted in the first field artillery and went on with General Pershing. He was killed on the Teule sector. The family is well known to many people of this city and he himself has visited here a number of times.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT BY LITTLE MEXICAN BOY

Burke Rutherford, nineteen years old, the son of L. J. Rutherford, who lives north of Petty on the Bonham road, was seriously shot yesterday evening by a little Mexican boy who was eight or ten years old. At first it was reported that the shooting was intentional, but later it was learned that it was accidental. The boy was passing a .25 caliber automatic rifle to the young man when it was discharged in some way and the bullet took effect in his abdomen. Deputy Sheriff Joe Driver telephoned Sheriff Clarkson of the shooting and informed him that it was accidental. The wounded young man was brought to the Sanitarium by his father and Dr. Crosby. His condition is understood to be serious. The accident occurred at Petty.

Doctor Says Tobacco Causes Hardening Arteries

Tobacco causes hardening of the arteries, says Dr. Conner, and along about forty when a man should be at his best, the excessive tobacco user finds himself with high blood pressure, headaches, indigestion and a lot of other troubles. Your own doctor will tell you this is true. If you want to quit tobacco entirely or cut down the excess, get a package of Nicotol tablets from your druggist and you will find it easy. Nicotol kills the craving and makes the tobacco habit quit you. It is sold under a steel-bound money-back guarantee by all druggists.

Note—Ask your druggist what others say about the wonderful power of Nicotol to break the tobacco habit. He knows and he can be trusted to tell you the full truth.—R. J. Murphy.

WAR RELICS SHOWN AT THOMPSON-GRIFFITH CLOTHING STORE TODAY

Captain Barber, Army Recruiting Officer of this city today arranged for the exhibition of American and German War relics in the spacious windows of Thompson-Griffith, hatters and clothiers on the square. This display created much comment at the State Fair at Dallas, Ft. Worth, Abilene, Brownwood, Waco, Corsicana, Tyler, Nacodoches, Greenville and Longview where it was witnessed by thousands of people.

It is the most elaborate and complete exhibit of small arms relics collected from the battlefields that has ever been shown in this part of the country and includes equipment actually captured from the enemy under fire.

The following is a partial list of trophies being shown in the windows of Thompson and Griffith.

- German light and heavy machine gun
- German sword and scabbard.
- German breast plate used with heavy machine gun.
- German knapsack and mess kit.
- German bayonet including the German sawed edge bayonet.
- Hand and rifle grenades.
- Browning machine gun the world's fastest firing gun.
- Browning automatic rifle.
- Lewis machine gun.
- Springfield rifle (1907 model).
- Enfield rifle (1917 model).
- American sawed off shot gun, the gun the Germans protested.
- French machine gun.
- A group of 73 rifles consisting of Belgian, American, British, French, German and Austrian all of which have been in heavy battle.
- 1 77MM high explosive gas and 11 155MM high explosive gas shell.
- 1 77MM shrapnel and 1 105MM shrapnel.

MAYOR CROOK TELLS WHY IMPROVEMENTS HAVE BEEN DELAYED

A FEW LAWS, FACTS, CONDITIONS AND OTHER THINGS EXPLANATORY OF WHY NO PUBLIC BUILDINGS AND STREETS HAVE BEEN CONSTRUCTED IN PARIS BETWEEN APRIL 21ST, 1918, AND THE PRESENT DATE, 1920.

WAR—the world's war, which for us began on the 2nd day of April, 1917.

The Government embargo on all kinds of material and supplies, especially gravel, cement and lumber, which went into effect in July, 1917, and applied to all cities and towns and state governments, which was not lifted until after the signing of the Armistice in November, 1918.

The special request to all Cities made by the Government not to do any work of public improvement except to finish such that was already under way.

Loyal Citizens could but obey.

AFTER NOVEMBER 1918

LAW. The tax limitations in the City Charter did not permit the levy of taxes sufficient to provide for the interest and final payment of bonds with which to pay for improvement.

This intervened until the election of the 17th of June, 1919.

Bonds must be submitted to a vote of the people after due notice—this held the matter in abeyance until the election of the 9th of September, 1919, then: FINANCIAL CONDITIONS

The numerous liberty loan bonds sold by the government, during the war, the enormous amounts of good road bond issued by the Counties and States, the bond issues of foreign governments and a slitting of the bond market and a depreciation of all municipal securities and municipal bonds could only be sold at a great discount, again the LAW—the City Charter forbids the sale of bonds for less than par value and accrued interest.

Paris bonds were advertised for sale on December 15th, 1919; no bids were received.

An appeal to the loyalty and patriotism of the local banks brought unanimous response and the law was complied with and the bonds sold to the local banks on January 15th, 1920, for par value and accrued interest.

The bond records were immediately submitted to attorneys for approval and have been approved and printed and are now in Paris. This week they will be taken to Austin for final approval and record and the City will receive the money for them some time next week.

In taking the various steps necessary to accomplish the various matters set out, only the time absolutely required by the law has been taken.

AGAIN.

Had money been available neither labor nor material could have been obtained with which to construct same. Take it now, it is only within the past few days that any cement or gravel has been obtainable. Lamar County sold aer bonds months ago but has been unable to do any work on her roads because of lack of both. And only by purchasing a mountain in Oklahoma and building a railroad track to it has Lamar County been able to even hazard a guess when work will begin.

THE LAW.

The City government may only depend upon its current funds to pay its expenses, and it is expressly prohibited from using current funds for permanent improvements, or bond funds to pay for current expenses. The construction of houses and streets and the maintenance thereof are permanent improvements and can only legally be done by using bond funds.

Anticipating that the bond funds would be available, contracts have been let for masons at $400 and in West Paris, and some of same are now on the ground and will be installed as soon as possible. Plans have been prepared for Fire Station and bids advertised for received and rejected because exceeding in cost money available therefor. Plans are now being revised and bids will again be asked for until an acceptable bid is received.

Bids for necessary fire apparatus have been asked for and will be received March 27th, 1920.

The City's books will show that at the end of the first fiscal year, 30th June, 1919, a debt of $8000.00 or more had been paid and there remained unexpended to be used in this the present year, about $15,000 that the rate of taxation was not increased, that every city employee received a substantial increase in salary and the price of all supplies used by the City had materially advanced.

I have had the co-operation and aid of the present council, the City employees and many good citizens. Not a great deal has been accomplished it is true, but I have endeavored to do for the City as for my own business and given it all my time, attention and best ability and feel sure that at least when means are available with which to construct public improvements that I can be equally as successful with them.

We have as beautiful a City as there is in the State and I am proud to live in it and be connected with it and my every ability will be used to render it more beautiful and maintain its high rank among the progressive cities of the Country. I ask your support and influence for my candidacy to succeed myself and promise if elected to use all my efforts to see that the City's money is spent wisely and that Paris retains her rank among the progressive cities of the State.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. CROOK, Mayor.

BOUGHT A BIG TIMBER TRACT IN BOWIE COUNTY

Dr. L. P. McCulliston of Paris and R. J. Haynes of Razor closed a deal last Saturday for the purchase of 1680 acres of land from Isom and Calvin Johnston of Bowie county, which is situated a mile and a half north of DeKalb. Negotiations for the purchase have been pending the past three months, but the deal has just now been closed up. The price paid for the land is not stated. It is a fine body of timber land none of which is improved.

The purchasers will erect a saw-mill right away to saw the best timber into lumber and will have woodchoppers to cut the rest of it into cordwood with the view to clearing the land for cultivation. The Johnston brothers, from whom the land was purchased, lived several years ago at Chicago. They own a big farm on the river in Bowie county.

EAGLE SHIRTS

IT is our business to know good merchandise. We recommend Eagle Shirts. Experts have experimented in the maker's own mill with designs, colors and varieties of yarn to achieve exceptional patterns—as if pattern were everything. Fabrics have been woven in the maker's mill where they are conceived—with as much care as though beautiful cloth were the only consideration. This manufacturer of over fifty years' experience has been constantly bettering every detail of cut and tailoring—as if workmanship alone would sway a man.

We know these things. That is why we believe in Eagle Shirts. That is why we want you to see our window display of Eagle Shirts; why we want you to come in, examine them, buy them, wear them. You'll understand then why we recommend them so heartily.

Sunday With Church Folk

The following is in part the sermon delivery by Rev. Ben Edwards as an opening of his revival season in his church Sunday morning:

A Revival

(By Ben M. Edwards)

If we had known me, ye had known my Father also from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him. Philip saith unto him, Lord show us the Father, and it sufficeth us." John 14:7,8.

Introduction:
The purpose of this revival is to show every individual in this church community the Father. If you have lived in the shadow of the church all these years and have not seen the Father it is your fault. There are indications that God has passed this way. The foot prints of Jesus are here and unmistakable evidence that the Holy Spirit is at work to enlist men and women during this meeting for the better life. "Show us the Father" should be the cry of every lost person in this audience today. Will you make that your demand, my lost friend and the challenge to the church. We shall endeavor to meet that demand.

The Prayer Life.

(1). Every revival that amounted to anything was born of prayer. We should pray the prayer of Daniel and the prayer of the Psalmist. We should make a business of prayer like the early Disciples. It was a dainty habit; and they went to the appointed place of prayer. It's no wonder they had a revival on Pentecost; they prayed for it.

A revival must come down. They are not gotten up, but sent down. Man must meet the conditions. Gethsemane's anguish of prayer brought results. Calvary's crucifixion of the flesh, and Pentecost with its influx of power for service has its lesson for every one of us.

In a great revival it is not enough to pray at home, though that is good, but we need to gather at the church the appointed place for prayer. We need to pray one for the other, and confess our sins and weaknesses one to the other. The atmosphere about this old house of God should be so permeated with the spirit of prayer, that men and women would feel the very presence of God as they enter the building and be made to say with those of my text, "Show Us The Father."

(2). A Scripture revival quickens into joyous activity the careless church member and floors the soul of devout Christians with streams of joy and a revival banishes malice, envy and evil passions from the heart of God's people.

(3). A revival will strengthen our Faith, as we see mighty demonstrations of God's power at work among men, and see great hosts coming down the isles to confess their sins and their faith in Jesus Christ.

A revival that revives the church makes the church weep. It makes the church repent, and it makes the church grow in the Christian graces. Beloved, on long has been since this church sent out a Missionary? How long has it been since some one volunteered for them ministry? What is this great church doing aside from having the regular services on the Lord's day? It is not enough to have a beautiful church or temple of worship to furnish splendid music and good preaching; we must carry the Gospel to the people. The early Disciples went every where preaching the word.

II. Revive a Greater Reverence For God's Word.

Make the preaching of His Word the chief business of this meeting.

(1). God will honor his spoken word. He plainly declares in the book of Isaiah "so shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth; it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please and it shall prosper in the things whereto I sent it."

(2). When the early Disciples were scattered abroad they went preaching the word. It was His blessed word that God was honoring when hundreds eagerly accepted the Christ as their Lord. We are still under the same great Commission today that the early church received fresh from the hands of the resurrected Lord: "Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I command you; and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

(3). In these special services we shall be careful to declare unto you, the whole council of God; and say with Paul, "determined to know nothing among you save Jesus Christ and him crucified." If we are faithful to declare unto you the word of God, He is under promise to give the results God is the Author of a revival and the salvation of lost souls. Not by might nor by power, but by my spirit; with the Lord. If we would see the spiritual ground we occupy made productive in a Christian harvest, "sell yourself to him in service now."

III. Revive and Enlist the Ungodly.

(1). A God given revival in this church will awaken the thoughtless sinner, call out confessions from secret disciples, and lead the inquirer to take the final step toward God. A genuine revival will attract the attention of the godless, and reckless, to the power and reality of true religion.

The promise of God to His people is still and for ever true. 2 Chron. 7:14 "If my people who are called by name will humble themselves and pray, and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sins."

Nay, but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. The Apostle Peter in preaching to that bunch of murders on the day of Pentecost said unto them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins. Notice that faith had been produced in their hearts from hearing the preaching of the Apostle—"They were pricked in their hearts, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Men and Brethren, what shall we do?"

At West Paris.

Sunday was another great spiritual day at West Paris Baptist church. Mr. T. J. Record was the guest of the Peican class in the Sunday school. After conducting the opening services he lectured to the adult classes in a body. His address on "Obedience" was one of the most helpful messages ever brought to the Sunday school.

A prayer and praise service followed the Sunday school. Old time songs were sung, prayers offered and many testified to the goodness of God. Such a service was very appropriate following the spiritual day of the preceding Sunday. Four boys and one girl came asking for membership. This makes eighteen for baptism in the last two Sundays.

At three o'clock the Sunbeam band met under the direction of Miss Helen B. Y. P. U. met. The subject of the lesson was "Before and after Christ" and promised the Juniors an ice cream supper on the church lawn provided they had present for four consecutive Sundays fifty members and that these members should remain for the evening service. The Juniors are very enthusiastic and fifty-two of them were found in their places when the evening service began. These kind people are the future hope of the church. The pastor delivered the fourth sermon of a series from the Ten Commandments.

The B. Y. P. U. will hold a joint business meeting and social with the B. Y. P. U. of the First church. This social will be Friday night at the First church.

Baptist Auxiliary.

The Baptist Ladies Auxiliary met yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock during the business session five new members were welcomed. Much time was spent in the discussion of the bazaar which is to come off April 2. Mr. Osborne was appointed to meet with the Old Cemetery Association. Plans were also made for entertaining the Baylor Choral Club girls who are to be here April 2. Mrs. Hammond took charge of the Bible study men, and the subject of the lesson was "Living trees."

New Society.

The young people of the Protestant Methodist church met one week ago, last Sunday and took initial steps in the organization of a league. The second meeting was held Sunday and by next Sunday it is expected that there will be fully thirty young people gathered together in this organization.

County Farm Service.

Owing to the very bad roads that have existed for the past few weeks there has been until Sunday no service held by the Ministerial Association at the county farm. Sunday being a beautiful day Rev. Young made the trip for the religious services and the attendance of the inmates and of the people in the neighborhood was so large that he felt very much encouraged and very much gratified over the results. There are a number of old people to whom this offers the only religious services they ever get. They are greatly appreciative of the opportunity which this affords them and the superintendent reports that he hopes these meetings will come often, now that the winter is clearing up.

Enworth League Program.

The workers division of the Enworth League of the First M. E. church had charge of the program Sunday evening and their little play intended to show some of the problems of the business workers was a big success. The playlet was entitled "Service" the cast of characters is given in the program below.

The revival spirit broke over the city of Paris Sunday and in four different churches the results of the cottage prayer meetings held the last two weeks are being tested. Every where there seems an unusual readiness on the part of a large number of people to listen to the more serious things.

Special meetings opened up Sunday

Rev. James W. Lawrence at Congregational church. Rev. Lawrence delivered a forceful message last night on "Satan". His subjects for the week will be:

Tuesday night—"Where are the dead? Can we communicate with them? What about our Obituaries?" Wednesday night—"Something new? Wednesday night—"Has the bloody gospel won out?" Friday night—"Why I look for Jesus to come back!"

All are welcome

evening at the Congregational church the first address being made by Rev. Luther Lees. Last evening Rev. Jas. W. Lawrence, pastor of the First Congregational church in Dallas began the nightly meetings. Last Wednesday evening the prayer meeting was so well attended that the service very nearly overflowed the prayer room. Both the Central and the First Presbyterian churches are turning all their attention to the evening services and all three of these churches are hoping for a large ingathering on Easter day.

At Christian Church.

A special interesting service is planned for tonight at the First Christian church. Three little girls from the East Paris school will have part in the opening program. All of the children and young people are especially invited to this service.

A very special invitation is extended to all of the singers and church people of the city to attend and help in these meetings. The singing will begin each evening at 7:30.

Room for More.

Sunday I visited the Ben Edwards Bible class for the younger men, and was present in the Sunday school room of the Christian church when this crowd of huskies marched into the room singing "Ring in the Sheaves." The class now has fifty members and is soon to burst the bounds of its present class room. It is now anxiously hunting new quarters. This is a fine average a little older bunch of men than those that make up the Builder's class in the First M. E. church. Between these two classes and the other men's classes in the other churches every man in town ought to be lined up. Yet I counted fully twenty five men within four blocks that noon as I walked away from the church, men that were not in these classes and I am sure were in no classes. Get out on the streets boys and roll them in. They are thick, and if you once get them with you they will stick.

The Manton Bible Class.

I can not think of a more fitting memorial of the life of a consecrated pastor than the kind the Manton Bible class has been creating for their late beloved pastor. Rev. Manton who for twenty eight years devoted his entire life to the Central Presbyterian church of this city. The motto of these class is as you probably already know "Not to be ministered unto but to minister." The very thought itself symbolical of the service rendered by the man for whom the class has been named.

Before this class was ever called the Manton Bible class it was just an ordinary Sunday School Bible class with both men and women in attendance. It had been organized in 1908. Two years later the men's class was formed under Rev. Caldwell and the class became a Woman's Bible class and took the name of the pastor whose life had been for more than a quarter of a century a benediction to the church.

The class aims to visit the sick, welcome strangers, and to make the lives of shut ins more bearable by sending the flowers and by visiting them. They take care of one orphan at the children's home in Albany, Texas, they assist in the work of the Traveler's aid, and furnish literature for the rest station at the depots.

This class in common with all others in the Central church, is working very hard to increase its membership. It has been very fortunate in having Mrs. Kirkes as a teacher and its president, Mrs. Emma Gaines. Its secretary is Mrs. J. P. Bramhall.

This class is made up of the women who are carrying the heaviest burdens in the homes and in the church, but there were forty-six of them present last Sunday morning, and Mrs. Bills one of its members is leading the women's contest for perfect church and Sunday school attendance, against Mr. Ridley and the men of the adult classes. Mrs. Bills has been ahead now for two Sundays.

Central Presbyterian.

The Central Presbyterian church is carrying on an ingathering campaign with the motto, "do it ourselves" following the injunction of the Master, "Give ye them to eat." Our scripture motto is "here am I send me."

The leaders are depending upon the Holy Spirit to give them such power as they have—depending upon His own word and His own church to do the work of evangelism in our midst. The ingathering is to be on Easter morning when they hope the year's work will total one hundred new members. On Easter morning the children will give their annual test in the Catechism and Scripture memory.

Holy week will be observed in four services. Two on Palm Sunday, the thought of which will be "Crown the Lord by Confessing Him." One on Wednesday evening, in connection with which will be held the annual congregational meeting. One on Thursday evening, in which we are going to watch one hour with our Lord. On Friday evening there will be four home religious conversations and on Easter there will be three great services. The Sunday school, the public worship and the Knights Templar service at 2:30 in the afternoon.

The choir will render appropriate music at all these services.

MARRIED AT HOME OF BRIDEGROOM'S BROTHER

Malcom White and Miss Beatrice Murray were married at 7:30 o'clock last evening at the home of R. A. White, a brother of the bridegroom, on South 17th street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Claud Carlton. The bride's home was in Clarksville, where her father, L. E. Murray, is a well known building contractor. She was accompanied by her mother and other members of the family. The bridegroom, who is an industrious young man, is a telegraph operator and was for six years with the Mackay company in Paris. He recently accepted a position with the Western Union office.

STOMACH TROUBLE AND CONSTIPATION ENDED

Suffered So He Couldn't Work for a Year, but Mr. McCormick Was Cured Promptly.

"I had stomach trouble and constipation for five years. One year of this time I was unable to work, suffering untold agony. I doctored with some of the best physicians, also took many proprietary medicines, but could not find permanent relief. Finally a friend recommended Milks Emulsion. The first few doses relieved me greatly, and three bottles of it effected a permanent cure."

C. A. McCormick, Anderson, Ind.

Mr. McCormick is one of many hundreds who have endured torture for years and then found that Milks Emulsion gives blessed relief and real, lasting benefit. It costs nothing to try. Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles, home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded.
